Rl Christmas Luncheon on Tuesday, December 15

Tis the season to celebrate together! Join your neighbors and friends for our annual Residential Living Christmas Party as we ring in the most wonderful time of the year. The celebration will be at the VFW and will feature a buffet lunch. A cash bar will be available for alcoholic beverages. It is a perfect time to catch up with old friends, welcome our newest neighbors, and share the joy of the season. Bus transportation will be available, if you need transportation call Tracy at 646-2434. Please note you must sign up by this Friday, November 20.

Deck the Halls meet at the Community Center Monday, November 30

Help us decorate for Christmas! Let's turn our community into a winter wonderland! We are looking for festive residents to help deck the halls, trim the trees, and bring holiday cheer to our community. As a huge thank you for the holiday cheer, all volunteers will enjoy a complimentary lunch on us! No decorating experience is necessary- just bring your festive spirit! Sign up in the program binder by Friday, November 20.

Chronic Pain Class Starts Monday, November 30 @11:30 AM

We need 5 more participants to hold this class! We currently have 3 people registered and need a minimum of 8 to host this program. Join YCAAOA for an empowering 6- week session designed to help you manage chronic pain and improve your daily well-being. Please sign up in the program binder by Friday, November 20 so we don't have to cancel this wonderful opportunity!

Women's Birthday Luncheon Tuesday, December 1

Tour of Carroll Co. Farm Museum & Living History on Monday, December 21

Located in Westminster, the Carroll County Almshouse and Farm, built in 1852, is a 30-room brick main house with a simple frame cupola, plus outbuildings such as a dairy, blacksmith shop, barn, and other farm dependencies. Originally a county almshouse, it was converted into a farm museum in 1965 and is on the U.S. National Register of Historic Places. Visitors can explore the main house, farm implements, and grounds, which include a croquet lawn, fishpond, and heirloom garden. The museum's exhibits and interpretive displays show how 19th-century farmers and families lived, worked, and cared for one another. We will stop for lunch before the tour. The cost of the tour is $4.00. Sign up in the program binder by Friday, December 4.
