

What’s Happening In July- A Summary of Events

It Takes a Village June 29-July 3

A week of celebrating our “family” of team members and residents. Look for the separate flyer.

Chat With the Chaplain-July 1 and 15, 10:00am, Cannon’s Corner. This Wednesday edition of Chat With the Chaplain will follow the theme, “Sanctified Grit, A Dangerous Drift”. No reading preparation is required. Monday Chats take place on July 6 and 20th.

Chicken BBQ –July 3, 11:30am, Personal Care Tent. Let’s celebrate the 4th of July weekend with a good old fashioned barbeque chicken meal. Stay and eat under the Personal Care Tent or take yours to go for later. You will enjoy a half a chicken, potato and dessert, grilled by Mountainside BBQ. Cost is $7.00. Sign-ups will be taken through Friday, June 26. (RR)

Apple Core Band Summer Concert- July 13, 6:30pm, Fellowship Room. The Apple Core Band is coming to us during their summer concert series. A perennial favorite, we always have a good time when they perform.

The Sound of Music Movie and Sing-along- July 15, 6:45pm, The Majestic Theater. The Majestic Theater in Gettysburg shows classic movies on Wednesday evenings all summer long. If you have never seen The Sound of Music on the big screen, now is your chance...and singing along is encouraged! The bus will drop you at the entrance to the theater where you can purchase your tickets at the box office for $10.00. (RR)

Men’s Breakfast at Perkin’s- July 17, 9:00am. Go have breakfast with the men on their monthly outing and let someone else do the cooking. (RR)

Breakfast at Oyler’s Organic Farm- July 25, 8:30am. Enjoy a Saturday breakfast outside on the farm at Oyler’s. This is truly farm to table casual dining with locally sourced ingredients and a great variety of freshly cooked entrees. While you are there you can shop in the farm market and pick something up for later.(RR)

The York Fair- July 27, 2:00pm- This is your year to go to the oldest state fair in America. The York State Fair was established in 1765 and continues its’ well known reputation to this day. Walk the midway, visit the animals and see what the popular food trucks are this year. You even get a free ride there and admission! Wear your good walking shoes and plan for about 3 hours so you can take your time getting to the displays that you would like to visit. You could just park yourself on a bench and people watch. (RR)

Christmas in July Mini Celebration- July 24, 1:00pm – Cookies, Christmas music and trivia. We will provide a few types of cookies. Please feel free to bring a favorite cookie of yours to share and we will split them up at the end if there are any leftovers. (RR)

Movie Matinee- July 29, 2:00pm – We are showing “Remarkably Bright Creatures” this month. Through unlikely bonds formed during night shifts at a local aquarium, Tova, an elderly widow, learns of a life-changing discovery that may bring her joy and wonder once again. Sally Field plays Tova in this “feel good” movie. Jess approved!

Events with (RR) require registration at the receptionist.

Here I sit at the tent on “The Longest Day”. Many of you have passed through, grateful for the beautiful but windy day, some reflecting on why they walk. Your stories are all different but the spirit of our community shines through. We do this for each other. We may not know who that “other” is, but we know there is someone out there that needs our support, so we “do”.

The first official day of summer is 2 days away but summer seems to be in full gear. Those of you who watch the busses across the street have to find something else to occupy your early mornings! The bench here in front of the Pollinator Garden is a great vantage point to take in our campus, which is in full bloom. We have new neighbors moving in all over. Take a minute to welcome them. Suggest an activity that you enjoy and invite them to come with you. We have a chicken barbeque and the Apple Core Band right here on campus. Suggest a fitness class that you enjoy or the availability of a free movie matinee with popcorn, to boot!

At this time we do not have a quarterly publication to preview all of our activities so the back of this calendar will serve the purpose this month. Look for topics for the Chat with the Chaplain, Chicken BBQ, Breakfast at Oyler’s Farm, The Sound of Music at the Majestic, and a trip to the York Fair, just to highlight a few. A description of the Fitness Classes will be available in the gym and the library.

Let's do this! Happy Summer.
