Dear SpiriTrust Lutheran Family,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. It is an honor to connect with a community so deeply rooted in service, compassion, and faith. My name is Rev. Dr. David B. Newell, and I bring a passion for Christ and the people of God.

My life's calling has been to help individuals and organizations grow in spiritual depth, moral strength, and purposeful service to others.

I have been privileged to serve in pastoral ministry, academics, theological education and entrepreneurial enterprise. In each facet of ministry my focus has remained on the people of God and helping them grow in Christ. I have a deep respect for the mission here—to witness the Gospel through compassionate care and holistic support.

I look forward to learning from and serving alongside the SpiriTrust Lutheran family as together we embody Christ's love in action, honoring every person as a sacred trust.

With gratitude and hope, Rev. Dr. David P. Newell

10th Annual Turkey Trot—Saturday, November 22

Can you believe it has been 10 years since our first official trot around the campus? Little changes have come over the years but the “why” is the same; support our community and get out for a little pre-Thanksgiving exercise together. Walkers can walk any distance. Bring some shelf-stable food and enjoy a Saturday morning outside. Sign up at the receptionist for planning purposes.

Thank you

I want to thank everyone who sent me a birthday card and helped me celebrate my 90th year! What a wonderful and caring community we live in as we remember and wish each other life's richest blessings! ~ G. “Lefty” Biser
