

The Weekly Connection

Personal Care | October 26 - November 1, 2025

Hello Residents!

This Friday is Halloween, and we've come up with some fun ways to enjoy it! The residents who painted pumpkins last week had a great time and did a wonderful job! Their artwork makes a cheerful decoration on the dining room ledge.

Weekly Program Features:

Jeopardy

Monday, October 27

3:00 pm in the Community Life Suite

Have fun playing team Jeopardy here at Kelly Drive! It's always a popular, exciting game.

A Pumpkin Carol with Sheila

Monday, October 27

5:30 pm in the Dining Room

Sheila will be playing some beautiful piano music during dinner. To kick things off, she has some fun, new words to a well-known song so everyone can join in singing "The First Day of Halloween."

Fun Cart

Tuesday, October 28

10:00 am Room to Room

The Fun Cart comes to your room bringing snacks, puzzle books, seasonal decorations to hang on your door, and much more. Enjoy this "room service" and take your pick! One item per customer, please.

DIY Pumpkin Patch Parfait Happy Hour

Wednesday, October 29

2:30 pm in the Dining Room

Come create your own tasty layered dessert with pudding and chocolate cookie crumbs during this fun Happy Hour. You can put it together just the way you like. Try it, I bet you'll like it!

Beach Ball Bash

Thursday, October 30

1:30 pm in the Community Life Suite

Use your pool noodle to hit the beach ball and blow off some steam! With everyone seated in a circle there are no teams, no goals, just pure bashing fun. Just don't bash your neighbor!

Devers Students Halloween Costume Parade

Friday, October 31

1:00 pm in the Family Lounge and Cafe

Come out and watch the kids show off their costumes. There will be seats for everyone as the students parade around the first floor. We have a bag of treats for each child, so you don't have to worry about giving out goodies. Wear a costume yourself if you want to!
