August 8th Mike Maloney “Across the River: Murder at Accomac” (Fellowship Room) 2:00 pm Join local author Michael Maloney for a presentation of his book Across the River: Murder at Accomac, a captivating exploration of a true crime story that rocked York County, Pennsylvania, on Decoration Day in 1881. On that fateful morning along the tranquil Susquehanna River, young Emily Myers was fatally shot by John Coyle, Jr., a man whose love turned lethal in the face of rejection. His shocking claim of innocence during his two trials sparked a fierce public outrage and dominated local headlines, raising questions about the justice system and the implications of the insanity plea. Through meticulous research, Across the River brings to life the characters, the courtroom drama, and the enduring impact of the crime.

August 22nd Life Long Learning: Jamie Noerpel “PA Dutch Food” (Fellowship Room) 2:00 pm
When the Germans settled York County, they brought customs dating centuries back. However, the flora and fauna in south central PA forced our ancestors to adapt to the new environment. Behold the birth of PA Dutch culture. In this presentation, Dr. Jamie Noerpel, will explore the culinary traditions of our grandmothers and grandfathers including raspberry pudding and fastnachts, apple butter, butchering cows and pigs, and of course pickled tripe. However, her favorite thing to make is dandelion wine. Come with your own recipes to add to this story telling afternoon.

August 23rd Reel Talk with Jan “Florence Foster Jenkins” (Fellowship Room) 1:30 pm Participate with Jan in a journey through film history as he explores influential movies and their cultural impact, cinematic techniques, and lasting legacies. Florence Foster Jenkins is a biographical comedy-drama based on the true story of a New York heiress and socialite who dreams of becoming an opera singer despite having a terrible singing voice. Directed by Stephen Frears, the film stars Meryl Streep as Florence Foster Jenkins, whose passion for music and unwavering confidence charm those around her, including her devoted partner, played by Hugh Grant. The movie explores themes of ambition, love, and the joy of self-expression, celebrating the power of following one’s dreams regardless of limitations. Runtime: 110 minutes

August 29th Lifelong Learning: Tom Davidson “The Haines Shoe House” (Fellowship Room) 2:00 pm
The Haines Shoe House in Hellam Township, York County, PA is an excellent example of programmatic architecture. In the twentieth century, buildings were constructed to advertise products and grab the attention of motorists as they traveled along the highway. Discover the history of one of York's most famous roadside attractions.
