Movie & Discussion with Richard Santel

Blossoms in the Dust (1941)

Starring Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon, Blossoms in the Dust is a heartwarming drama based on the true story of Edna Gladney, a woman who dedicates her life to helping orphaned and abandoned children. After experiencing personal heartbreak, Edna finds a new purpose in giving children the love, care, and opportunities they deserve. This touching film celebrates compassion, perseverance, and the power of making a difference in the lives of others.
