

The Weekly Connection

Residential Living | March 24-30, 2024

Hello, Residents!

Spring is officially here, and Easter is soon here as well. This week features several special worship services as we prepare for Easter, as well as fun ways to gather with friends. We hope to see you out and about!

Be well,

Weekly Program Features:

Lunch out at Harvest Restaurant at the Hotel Hershey

Monday, March 25

Depart Front Entrance at 12:00pm

Inspired by local and regional ingredients, Harvest is one of Hershey's best lunch spots. The menu features fresh seasonal fare and a variety of flavorful beverages including microbrews, cocktails and an American wine list. Delicious food paired with a beautiful view and the splendor of the Hotel Hershey, it's a lunch experience for the senses.

Gaither Concert: Kennedy Center Homecoming

Tuesday, March 26

2:00pm in the Fellowship Room

Gaither Concerts are well known worldwide for their award winning and top selling recordings. Performances showcase gospel music pioneers. This recording of inspirational music, part of the Gaithers' own Gaither Gospel Series, bears a subtitle that dubs the concert "A celebration of our faith and heritage." The musical program stays true to that claim with a stirring mixture of some of the best known Christian hymns and patriotic songs.

Resident Breakfast

Friday, March 29

9:30am in the Fellowship Room

Cost: $9 payable at meal

Enjoy a delicious breakfast featuring hot dishes, fresh fruit, pastries and a variety of beverages—all the ingredients needed to make a perfect start to finish breakfast! Those with March birthdays can enjoy a complimentary breakfast.

UNO Flip

Saturday, March 30

2:00pm in the Family Lounge

Come enjoy a laugh-out-loud game of UNO Flip and find out why this game has taken Kelly Drive by storm. New players always welcome.
