Dear friends,

I have enjoyed spending this Lent and Easter season with you. It has been a life-giving experience to be with you during this season and it has been a time for us to reflect upon our faith as well. I think that sometimes we make the mistake of thinking that we must have perfect faith or faith without gaps or doubts in order to be faithful Christians. This is part of what I love about the Bible. The text of scripture is so honest about how human our great heroes of the faith were, whether we are talking about Abraham, the father of the Jewish people, or Thomas, the disciple of Jesus made famous for doubting. I think we all can be encouraged in this area of our spiritual lives. God wants us to persevere in our faith in the midst of challenging circumstances, but he does not expect us to never feel challenged by life. In this month following Easter, I want to share with you a passage of scripture about persevering in our faith.

“Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see. ² This is what the ancients were commended for. ⁸ By faith Abraham, when called to go to a place he would later receive as his inheritance, obeyed and went, even though he did not know where he was going. ⁹ By faith he made his home in the promised land like a stranger in a foreign country; he lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. ¹⁰ For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose architect and builder is God. ¹¹ And by faith even Sarah, who was past childbearing age, was enabled to bear children because she^[b] considered him faithful who had made the promise. ¹² And so from this one man, and he as good as dead, came descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore” (Hebrews 11:1-2; 8-12).

Blessings,
Chaplain Aaron Cope
