St. Patrick's Day is often filled with green decorations, shamrocks, and celebrations—but at its heart, it is a day that reminds us of God's faithful guidance. St. Patrick was known for traveling through unfamiliar places, trusting that God would lead him step by step. Even when things were uncertain, he never walked alone.

In our own lives, we also move through seasons that feel unfamiliar—changes in health, new routines, or challenges we didn't expect. Yet just like St. Patrick, we can rest in the promise that God goes before us, beside us, and behind us. His presence surrounds us, offering courage when we feel unsure and peace when our hearts feel restless.

St. Patrick's own words remind us of this truth:

"Christ with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ within me."

When we don't know what tomorrow looks like, God already does.

When we feel anxious, He is our comfort.

When we feel lonely, He is our companion.

When we feel weary, He strengthens us.

Today, let St. Patrick's faith be a quiet encouragement:

You are held.

You are guided.

You are never walking this road alone.

*May your heart stay young, your stories stay long,
and may a sprinkle of Irish luck stay in your pocket*

all day

Happy St. Patrick's Day

Here's to New Beginnings

Spring is a season that gently reminds us of God's promise to bring new life out of what once felt cold, quiet, or still. After months of winter, the smallest signs—buds on trees, birds returning, longer days—show us that God is always at work, even when we cannot see it happening. In the same way, God brings renewal to our hearts. He restores our hope, refreshes our spirits, and reminds us that no season of life stays the same forever.

Just as the earth begins to awaken, we too can open our hearts to God's renewing presence. Spring invites us to let go of the heaviness of the past season and welcome His gentle encouragement. It is a time to notice the beauty He places around us and to trust that He is growing something good within us—slowly, quietly, and faithfully.

Prayer:

Lord, thank You for the gift of spring and the promise of new beginnings. As the world around us begins to bloom again, awaken our hearts with Your hope and Your peace. Refresh our spirits, renew our strength, and help us see the blessings You place in each day. May this season remind us of Your constant love and the new life You bring into every part of our lives. Amen.
