Ticket to the Past, Film, Cyclorama, and Museum: Experience Gettysburg's history like never before! Journey back to 1863 in this cinematic, immersive virtual reality experience. On June 30, 1863, the purpose of Gettysburg's railroad station changed, as it became the first army field hospital even before the Battle of Gettysburg began. Then, on Nov. 18, 1863, enthusiastic crowds gathered outside the railroad depot in hopes of catching a glimpse of President Abraham Lincoln as he arrived in Gettysburg for the dedication of the national cemetery. This will take approximately 2.5 hrs. to experience the entire facility. The story of this station goes beyond the famous arrival. Citizens, medical personnel, and soldiers made this stop a focal point of history. Now, virtual reality technology transports you back to 1863 when the bustling station became a site of war, survival, and presidential history. You'll even catch a glimpse of our 16th President's arrival in Gettysburg.

February 2026

Way back in the forties
When I was still in school
There was a boy in my class
He was cute - a pleasure to see
And he drove a bright red Mercury.

Cars were special- way back then
So this was definitely a number ten.
And try as I might to go for a ride.
Always a cute girl by his side.

Then, speeding one day, his good luck goes.
A cop in a cruiser right on his toes.
Now, he walks, like the rest of us.
Too proud to ride on the old school bus.
Looking back, it's clear to me
I loved that Merc; much more than he!

A Challenge

I want to write a poem
But I don't know what about
At times like this it seems to me
The topics have all run out.

I've re-read my past offerings
From childhood to present time
But a fresh idea won't come to me
Until I figure out the rhyme.

Well by gosh I think that's it
A topic as plain as day
I'll write about these challenges
When there's nothing more to say.

-Theresa Zink
